GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 7th July 1882.

No. 67.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned kayamgutta and jodi villages, which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said kayamguttadars and jodidars will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the dates specified, and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

If such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

No. 73.—The following rules in regard to the margin of lands to be left vacant for public purposes on the sides of high roads are published for general information :—

Dry Crop Land.

1. If there should be only one ditch, the boundary of the adjoining survey number must be fixed at a distance of 20 feet from the outer edge of the ditch.
2. Should there be two ditches, and the outer ditch be more than 20 feet from the inner ditch, then the boundary of the adjoining survey numbers must be fixed at a distance of 4 feet from the outer edge of the outer ditch.
3. Should the distance between the inner and outer ditch be less than 20 feet, the boundary of the adjoining survey number must be fixed at 20 feet distance from the outer edge of the inner ditch, but on no account is the boundary of the adjoining survey number to be nearer than 4 feet to the outer ditch.
4. If in any place there should be no ditch at all to the road, then the boundary of the adjoining survey number should be fixed at a distance of 24 feet from the actual edge of the road.

Rice Land.

5. When the road and the rice land are on the same level, the boundary of the adjoining survey number shall be fixed at a distance of 4 feet from the outer edge of the ditch.

6. When the road is elevated above the rice lands, the boundary of the adjoining survey number shall be fixed at a distance of 6 feet from the toe of the embankment. If excavations exist at the side, they must form the limit of the road.

Garden Land.

7. If garden land, which is unoccupied or which being occupied is not cultivated, adjoins the road, the boundary of the adjoining survey number must be made at a distance of 10 feet from the road. If the garden land is cultivated, the garden edge shall form the boundary of the survey number.

8. If the garden edge shall have been placed so as to encroach upon the original limits of the high road, Measurer shall report the case to the Assistant Superintendent with a view to the edge being thrown back with the concurrence of the District Deputy Superintendent.

Morum pits or spaces for stacking metal.

9. Convenient spots will be marked off by the Public Works Officers by fixing a stone at the corner of each space. Lists of such places will be given by those officers to the Shanbhog of each village, who should be bound to show them to the Measurer when he comes to measure the village.

The 20th July 1882.

No. 74.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned vritti or share of the jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said vrittidar, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the vritti will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
